2. Susan K. Prine:
 - A. Will serve at the pleasure of the chief judge of the circuit court.

- B. Will take the constitutional oath of office.
- C. Is a member, in good standing, of the State Bar of Michigan, pursuant to MCL 552.5071.

3. The following types of motions may be heard initially by Domestic Relations Referees. Referee Susan K. Prine is authorized to perform the following duties pursuant to MCL 552.507(1) and MCR 3.215(A):

Hear all domestic relations motions and any ancillary (related non-domestic relations) motions that the court determines to be related to a domestic relations case.

4. The Domestic Relations Referee is authorized to conduct the following scheduling and settlement conferences in domestic relations cases in accordance with MCR 3.215:

Scheduling conferences in domestic relations cases. The court must review and may either approve or modify the referee's scheduling.

Settlement conferences in domestic relations cases.

5. Recommendations for certain orders by the Domestic Relations Referee shall be given interim effect pending a judicial hearing on a timely objection or pending the twenty-one (21) day waiting period as authorized by MCR 3.215(g):

Orders establishing custody

Orders establishing support

Orders establishing parenting time

Orders modifying support when custody does not change

Orders implementing income withholding

6. If a domestic relations referee's recommended order does not have interim effect pursuant to this order, the court may enter a case-specific order giving the recommended order interim effect pending the judicial hearing, unless interim effect is prohibited by MCR 3.215(G)(3).

Effective Date: January 1, 2010

Date: December 11, 2009
